

BERGER'S BAND BACK WITH MANY LAURELS

The Royal Hawaiian Band, its leader Captain Berger, and Madame Nane Alapai were given a hearty welcome home last night at the Royal Hawaiian hotel. The concordia band gave a concert which was much appreciated. The first performance by the Royal Hawaiian band will be next Monday night as the members are fagged after their two months arduous work.

"We're all tired," said Captain Berger yesterday, "and the boys expected a chance to stretch a little, so we won't 'blow' till Monday night."

"During our trip, we played over 700 pieces. We gave two programs a day at the fair, played in San Francisco, San Jose and Sacramento, on the Manchuria coming down and today."

Several members of the band spoke of the climate of San Francisco with disparagement. "We nearly shivered out of our clothes in the fog and chilly air. Our first concert there we had to lock our knees together to keep from shaking so we couldn't play."

"The first night in San Francisco it was pretty cold," Captain Berger admitted. "It was hard to play under such conditions. But it warmed up after that. In San Jose it was warm and in Sacramento it was fearfully hot. We were well treated and entertained and our trip was a success."

REX HITCHCOCK LOSES HIS POSITION

Rex Hitchcock, Deputy County Attorney, was let out of his position yesterday as prosecuting officer of the police court. Mr. Hitchcock had been in office a month. It is alleged that he did not put enough vim into the work of procuring evidence. An instance is cited in the case of "Col." Knox, a negro, who was recently arrested for a heinous offense, the victim being a little Hawaiian girl. To the surprise of most everyone, "Col." Knox got off owing to "insufficient evidence."

In the gambling cases, it is said that there has not been displayed enough zeal on the part of Mr. Hitchcock to cope with them.

Frank Andrade was appointed to succeed Hitchcock by the Board of Supervisors last night.

"That's good beer."

The above comment is frequently heard within the portals of the CRITERION. The compliment is well deserved for you can't get a better glass of beer anywhere.
